

|                                                |                                     |                                                      |
|------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
|  Do not travel                      |  Administrative boundary |  National capital                         |
|  Reconsider your need to travel     |  International border    |  Administrative centre; point of interest |
|  Exercise a high degree of caution  |  Disputed border         |  Border crossing                          |
|  Exercise normal safety precautions |                                     |                                                      |
|  No travel advice                   |                                     |                                                      |

This map is presented solely to illustrate risk levels contained in travel advisories for this destination. The territorial boundaries, nomenclature and designations used on this site do not necessarily reflect Australian Government policy. The Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade accepts no responsibility for errors or omissions of any geographic feature. Provided by the Commonwealth of Australia under Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 Australia licence.